

Wait On You

Written by Philip C. Vinson
Tuesday, 08 July 2008 20:49 -

Make me the best soldier I can be, Fighting battles until there is victory.
And be faithful and true, Because only my best will do.
Doing my best I won't let You down, When I was lost You searched until I was found.
And until that day You appear,
I want to be busy for You as long as I am here.
There is so much yet to do.
Helping the poor, sending missionaries for You.
Never losing sight of people who still need to hear; Jesus died; no need to live in fear.
We must work while it is yet day, Helping those who are struggling along the way. I know I have not always done my best for You, But You still forgave, because You wanted to.
There are times I don't know what else to do, I just pray and wait on You.
And stand until I know the next step I must take.
And study Your word for my own sake.
Your will for long You will not conceal, But in due time will reveal.
I won't worry about what next to do, There is someone to lend a helping hand to.
Your word must be heard by every ear, Not one soul should there be that does not hear.
But perhaps soon You will come, Then those prepared will go ... everyone.