

I Didn't Know

Written by Philip C. Vinson
Wednesday, 09 July 2008 17:32 -

---

My life for Christ has been a total waste.
Now, what I do for Christ must be with haste.
I didn't know there was any other, way.
I didn't know I could come to You and pray.
No matter where I go or what I do, Something seems to always go wrong there to.
No matter how hard I try,
If only far away from it all I can fly.
I have wondered is this what life is all about?
What in my life have I left out?
If only my troubles I could leave far behind, And peace, I could find.
Peace, oh, if only that could be.
But, it seems to always elude me. It would be so good just to know,
If there would be peace some place I go.
There must be a better way of life than this.
There has been little joy, this I miss.
If there could only be one day of peace, And my problems for that day would cease.
If there could have been peace within, What a joy that would have been.
If only my troubles would go away, And peace would come today.
Finally, a change in my life came to be.
Peace came, there was joy, what a difference in me.
The wrong things in my life, God caused to cease.
I now have Christ, and my day of peace.