I was lost, wandering here and there, Lost, not even seeming to care.
Lost, until Jesus spoke to me one day, Hey ... that's the wrong way.
Lost, didn't know what lay ahead.
Lost, didn't know anything about what God said, Had Jesus ever spoken to me before now?
When, how?
Lost, on my way to hell,
Lost, not knowing long ago from grace man fell. Lost, didn't know for my sins Jesus came to pay,
Lost, until Jesus showed me He was the way.
Lost, not knowing which way to go, Lost, without anyone letting me know.
Lost, not knowing I didn't have to travel life's road alone, The way I had not been shown.
Lost, with no one to share, Lost, with no one to care.
Lost, not knowing the One that died for me, Lost, not knowing there was a better way life could be.
Lost, not knowing I was on the wrong track, Lost, not knowing in my life there was such a lack.
Lost, not knowing God's word, Lost, not having ever heard.
But now I finally know, That Jesus loved me so.
Loved me when I was lost,
Loved me and showed me how much it cost.
