I am sorry, Jesus, for all You had to go through for me.
But if You hadn't, in hell I am sure I would be.
Your love for me was so very great.
It took Your death to remove all my guilt, sin and hate.
One day You came to dwell within.
You gave me peace and joy where once there was sin.
Your love and mercy exceeded all my expectations.
And brought about in my life a great transformation.
What You did by my own power I was unable to do.
So now Lord, I willingly give my life to You.
In a lifetime, You I could never repay. But I will listen Lord, and gladly obey.
For me You went through so much pain.
Now my life over sin I did regain.
You knew that was something You had to do.
For me, suffer and die You went through.
You wanted for us Your best so there would be no lack.
That is why You suffered the cross and stripes upon Your back.
You did not complain through all that pain.
But it brought about the hope of eternal life once again.
Sin always kept me in defeat.
And from God caused me to be in constant retreat.
Until Jesus came and showed me a better way.
Now my life is going in the right direction today.
Thank You, Lord, for forgiving me.
Thank You, Lord, for setting me free.
Thank You, Lord for coming to this earth.
Thank You, Lord, for my new birth.
