Be not weary in well doing we are told, Weariness in body also wants to have a hold.
Weariness just seems to creep in, It all started with Adam's sin.
As I get older weariness seems to know, But when time to leave it is slow.
Weariness sometimes just takes it's toll, But it can't keep me from reaching my goal.
Weariness is a pest and wants to come back, But God gives me strength, there is no lack.
One day weariness will have to go,
It will be banned from my life, that I know.
Weariness can sure wear you out, Satan enjoys that, that's what he is all about.
I can still come to God in those times too, He refreshes me, He knows just what to do.
Weariness has visited many in it's day, And many more it will visit before it goes away.
One day God will tell it to go, That will be a wonderful day I know.
One day weariness will no longer be, Jesus will have removed it from you and me.
That word will no longer be,
From getting old, tired, weary I will be free.
When weary in body or Spirit God helps us down life's road, He will be there to help us with our heavy load.
We know one day this will all end, Because an all new life we will begin.
