

Silent

Written by Philip C. Vinson
Sunday, 29 June 2008 23:41 -

Lord I started hearing about You at a very young age. I would listen as Your Word was read from each page.

Jesus, I know from God You were sent.

And of my sins I did repent.

Lord Your presence I now need to feel.

Won't You come touch me and heal?

Have I done wrong, is that why You are so quiet?

Are You going to stay silent yet another night?

Why do You not come when I ask?

Is listening to me become a task? Is there no answer when I pray?

Are You going to stay silent still another day?

Is this the way You want things to stay?

Don't You want our relationship better than this way?

Must I be the only one with something to say, While You remain silent night and day?

Are You not going to speak to me anymore?

Has my seeking You become a bore?

Is what was between us over, is it really gone?

Lord why have You been silent so long?

There was so much we used to talk about.

Now You are silent, about my life is there some doubt?

Is there more than I am that I should be?

Then break the silence and speak to me.

Why were your thoughts that I do not care?

All this time My blessing with you I did share.

When you called I heard. I saw each tear.

I was always there, you just didn't realize how near.