

It Was Enough

Written by Philip C. Vinson
Wednesday, 09 July 2008 16:39 -

Through His wounds our Savior bled, Not another drop need be shed.
Enough was shed to cleanse every heart, And those who believe on Him are very smart.
We no longer need the blood of bulls and goats, Neither can our sins be hid behind our cloaks.
We need the blood of God's perfect lamb.
Not the sacrifice of a ram.
Christ, the perfect sacrifice was slain, And in another man's tomb He was lain.
He wasn't long in the grave, To sin we no longer are a slave.
He died for all so all could live.
His own life He came to give.
There was no other sacrifice that would do, This one was enough for the world, for you.
The blood of an animal could never take away sin, It had to be offered over and over again.
The prophets spoke of the One that was to come, It was a sacrifice sufficient for everyone.
This is the only sacrifice God will show respect.
Anything else He would not accept.
Works without Him will not do,
This sacrifice was prepared just for me and you.
We must believe it was enough once and for all, Now He wants to place in every heart, His call.
Yes, Jesus came and died,
He now sits on God's right hand ... Glorified.