Jesus, I believe You were in the beginning with God, And You created the Heavens where angels trod.

And all things were created by Thee, You saw how everything needed to be.

I believe You hung the planets in space, And each one stays in its assigned place. No need each day to tell it where to stay,

From the day it was created remains to this day.

I believe for Your glory they are and were created, And everything good You did the devil hated.

But You are the one with the final say, Satan's time will come, he will have his final day.

I believe everything from the beginning You knew, Things were made with precision; You knew what to do.

I believe You created the earth just for man, And for him You had a wonderful plan.

I believe You came to earth, was born, laid in a manger, And to Your own people You were a stranger.

You preached the gospel to all that would hear,

You healed the sick, raised the dead, delivered from fear.

I believe You came and died,

That You shed Your blood, You were crucified.

You knew there was no other way to save me, This is the way it had to be.

I believe You are coming back for us one day, To catch those that believe on You away.

There will be no death there,

That only happened before we met You in the air.
