

Servant

Written by Philip C. Vinson
Wednesday, 02 July 2008 02:10 -

I came to You, Lord, when but a teen.
Sin in my life You removed and made me clean.
One day I called upon Your name, And that day Your servant I became.
Lord, I just want to be a faithful servant, In everything I do being fervent.
A great servant I may never be,
But fulfilling the call You have given me.
If You speak, I want to hear, To help others, showing I care.
Make me that servant that will obey, Always being prayed up and ready for the day.
I know there is plenty yet to do,
So a humble servant I want to be for You.
Serving You with all my heart, And each new day with You I start.
Even the King of Glory came to serve,
Or we would be doomed and get what we deserve.
Make me the best servant I can be,
So You can accomplish what You want in me.
I don't worry about what You give others to do, As long as I am a good servant serving You.
To do what is right is expected of me, Or a good servant I could not be.
Lord, help me to do my best,
That I have been faithful and stood the test.
So, I will hear "A good servant you have been; And a new life with Me you now begin."