

Sin

Written by Philip C. Vinson
Monday, 30 June 2008 15:33 -

---

Where Christ once dwelt is there now sin,
Where once was joy and peace, is it now emptiness within?
Christ and sin, both you cannot choose, Because if you try, Christ you will lose.
Sin shall not have dominion over you I have read, You must repent, that is what Christ said.
Even if you are living your life in sin Christ loves you still, But if His love you reject, death will be a bitter pill.
If in sin you choose to be,
Then only in judgment Jesus you will see, So do you really wish to wait so long, Until every opportunity has come and gone?
The price for my sins, I was unable to pay, So in sin I must remain, there I must stay.
Then I heard that Jesus came and died for my sins, Now not for me only, but everyone wins.
No longer in sin will I walk,
And things about sin I no longer talk.
My life is now in Christ, that is what I chose to do, Lord, it is You I serve, Lord I chose You.
I tried sin and it did not pay, In sin satan wanted me to stay,
And in sin he wanted me to live everyday, But Jesus came and showed me a better way.
Haven't you had enough of sin?
Don't you want a new life to begin? Christ is just waiting for you to say, Lord, forgive me, my life
I give to You today.
But if in sin you wish to remain,
And your old lifestyle you want to maintain, Then with Christ you can never be,
Not coming back and being set free.