

He Has Risen

He came out of the grave; He rose today.
We now can rejoice, sing and pray.
Until that day when He calls us away.
This could be the day. Because He has risen.
But until that glorious day, We must work, fast and pray.
When Jesus comes for us, He will feel proud.
He will tell the trumpeter to make it loud, Because He has risen.
What we have longed for will become a reality.
When we put on immortality.
There will be no more death and pain.
We will live again.
Because He has risen.
The grave cannot hold us there.
No more burdens to bear.
That day will end all our sorrows.
And begin so many wonderful tomorrows.
Because He has risen.
He will be coming after you and me, And with Him we will forever be.
Then this old body will be new.
There will be no limit to what we can do.
Because He has risen.
He is alive, I proclaim.
A resurrected body Jesus has, we will have the same.
Soon we will be with Him,
A brand new life we will begin.
Because He has risen.
We were once held in prison, Now set free because Christ has risen.
"Death could not hold Him", God's Word did say.
He's alive! Yes, He rose today.
