

Lord I Give You Praise

Written by Philip C. Vinson
Sunday, 29 June 2008 18:52 -

Lord, we just come before You with praise, As we travel down this life of uncertain maze.
And for aU the things for us that You do, I bow my knees and worship You.
Let praise in my heart always be there, Because of Your love for me and Your care.
Before You, Lord, my voice I will raise.
The devil hates for me to give You praise.
With our praise we drive the devil crazy.
So to him everything will be hazy.
Because of words in rhyme You have given me, In them, I just want to praise and glorify Thee.
I want to praise You in everything I do.
I know what I am is because of You.
In abundance of life, You now give me to live.
AU because Your life for me You did give.
No other sacrifice would do for me. You look down and You could see. That from the devil I could not flee.
You said, Father, a sacrifice for Him I will be.
How can I ever praise You for aU You did?
My sins from You were never hid.
So I want to say thank You once again.
For aU You went through and what You did.
Lord, I give You praise,
For getting me through life's tangled maze.
And from foUowing my own ways, Now and forever Lord, I give You praise.